DIETRICH BONHOEFFER: Dietrich Bonhoeffer, the German Lutheran pastor who was executed by the Nazis for resisting Hitler's totalitarian regime wrote The Cost of Discipleship. In the book, he distinguishes between cheap grace and costly grace. Costly grace is the gospel which must be sought again and again. It is costly because it cost a man his life, and it is grace because it gives man the only true life. Cheap grace is the preaching of forgiveness without repentance, baptism without church discipline. Communion without confession. Cheap grace is grace without discipleship, grace without the cross, grace without Jesus Christ.
